TENTH ANNUAL

COLLEGE GREEK EXAM

Ω

ἡ δοκιμασία τοῦ λόγου τε καὶ τοῦ νοῦ δέκα δὴ ἔτη....

WHAT:

The College Greek Exam (CGE) is a standardized national exam for students in their first year of college-level Greek. In conjunction with the National Greek Exam (NGE), intermediate or advanced students can now take an analogous exam on Greek Tragedy.

Geared for students in their first year of instruction, the CGE is available for students studying either Attic or Koine Greek. The grammar and vocabulary on the syllabus for the exam are based on frequency and thus not tied to any particular textbook or approach. CGE follows a format similar to that of the NLE and NGE: forty multiple-choice questions, twenty-five on the language in general and fifteen on a brief reading passage. If you have questions, just ask!

Visit www.dramata.com to download the syllabus, more information and previous exams.

WHY:

This is a chance for your students to compete with other students across the country and for you and your administrators to show off your program on a national scale. Prizes include certificates, ribbons and medals. Courtesy, of the Classical Association of the Middle West and South, top scores can also win Ed Phinney Award. It is perfect for external assessment, too!

WHEN:

We ask that you administer the exam during the week of March 5-9, 2018. If this is not possible, please contact us about alternative possibilities. We are now offering the exam again during the Fall (by the end of October). Email us for more information if your beginning sequence ends in the Fall.

HOW:

E-mail any of the committee members below by January 31, 2018 and provide (1) an address to ship the exams and (2) how many exams you will require.
