FOURTH ANNUAL

COLLEGE GREEK EXAM

Ω

ἡ δοκιμασία τοῦ λόγου τε καὶ τοῦ νοῦ.

WHAT:

The College Greek Exam (CGE) is a standardized national exam for students in their first year of college-level Greek.

Geared for students in their first year of instruction, the exam is available for students studying either Attic or Koine Greek. The grammar and vocabulary on the syllabus for the exam is based on frequency and thus not tied to any particular textbook or approach.

WHY:

The National Greek Exam (NGE) has enjoyed increasing success every year among high school students, but college students at the beginning level have no opportunity to compete on an analogous exam. CGE follows the same format as that of the NGE: forty multiple-choice questions, thirty on the language in general and ten on a brief reading passage. This is a chance for your students to compete with other students across the country and for you and your administrators to show off your program on a national scale!

WHEN:

We ask that you administer the exam during the week of March 12-16, 2012. If this is not possible, please contact us about alternative possibilities.

HOW:

E-mail any of the committee members below by January 31, 2012 and provide (1) an address to ship the exams and (2) how many exams you will require. Visit www.dramata.com to download the syllabus and more information about the exam. If you have questions, just ask!

Because of support from the American Classical League, the Committee for the Promotion of Greek (part of the National Committee for the Promotion of Latin and Greek), Eta Sigma Phi, and Louisiana State University, there will be NO CHARGE for exams this year!
